GATHERING

Entrance Into Worship The Old Rugged Cross Hustad

Greeting Molly Shoulta

Invocation

Call to Worship

Today the carpenter's hands are nailed to a cross,
the King of kings is crowned with thorns
and wears the purple robe of mockery.

Today he sets us free, himself imprisoned on a tree.

Today is God's Friday.

We come in worship.

Intercessions:

We pray for all who will die this day,

resources.

For those who die of illness,

that we might work for health care for all.

For those who die from the violence of others,

that we might spread love and teach caring.

For all who die in wars,

that we might work for peace and reconciliation.

For those who die at the hand of their government,

that other ways might be found to teach right living and rehabilitation.

For those who die forgotten or homeless,

that we might open our eyes and move to their side.

For those who die when there seems to be no reason,

give peace, O God.

For those who grieve,

give comfort, O God.

For those whose illnesses seem to have no end,

give strength and steadfast love, O God.

For those who see no way out,

give hope and courage, O God.

For those who live with war each day,

give courage and humanity, O God.

For those who struggle to do your will,

give strength and faith, O God.
